ABOUT THE DESIGNER

Drawing inspiration from the artistry of everyday life, crochet teacher and designer Abbey Swanson of The Firefly Hook crafts her meticulous designs to mirror the intricacies and grandeur of all the things that she loves best: from wildflowers to skyscrapers, landscapes to cultural traditions.

These genuine artistic expressions often honor a particular place and sometimes she is simply inspired by a whimsical muse to create something truly unique. Her mission is to motivate a new generation of crocheters with designs that move beyond the granny square into a new and fresh reputation for crochet.
